PRACTICES & ACTIONS TO CREATE RESILIENCE

Creating resilience through connecting to Nature &
Discussion of protecting Nature with the bold policies of the Green New Deal

In this session we'll take time to connect with Nature through a series of experiential exercises led by our very own Martha Kelder!

We'll then turn our attention to how we can protect Nature, and all species, with bold policies that meet the urgency of our climate disruption.

We'll focus specifically on the ambitious acts of vision contained in the Green New Deal Resolution, recently introduced into Congress.

Join us ~ Free! Open to all! No experience necessary.
