

CLIMATE DESTABILIZATION: OUR LONG EMERGENCY

Sunday, May 26, 2019, 6:30-8:00pm

The Value of Looking at Our Multiple Crises Through a Spiritual Lens

Spiritual leaders are speaking up and speaking out about the urgency of this moment:

“We are in the midst of a Planetary Emergency.

This is a watershed moment for humanity, where everything depends on how we respond.

Let us turn this pain to strength, clarity and focus so we can face this immense challenge together.” Joanna Macy

“It may be that this intelligent species, which has finally gained an understanding of the atom, the gene and the brain, is now getting a signal:

evolve or die.” Barbara Marx Hubbard

We will look at our multiple crises through a spiritual lens, discuss how we can evolve, what sacred activism has to offer, and how we can rise to the occasion.

Join us for 2 short films, spiritual practices, and discussion.
