

Climate Video & Discussion Night
Sunday, November 5, 2017, 6:30-8:00pm
Beyond the Anthropocene with Johan Rockström

In just five decades, we have transitioned from being a small world on a big planet to a big world on a small planet. We have moved into the Anthropocene, the period during which human activity has been the dominant influence on climate and the environment.

Johan Rockström, Executive Director of the Stockholm Resilience Centre, explains why we should be concerned about this and how we can embrace the opportunities in our necessary transformation towards global sustainability.

Join us for a short presentation on the exponential function, so crucial to understanding climate science, and this 20-minute film. Followed by discussion.
